

No: _____

TENAFLY NJ
Chamber of Commerce

6 W. Railroad Avenue was built between 1913 - 1920 and originally functioned as the headquarters of the Smith Realty Company. The Smith Building is particularly important as it is the only example in Bergen County of early 20th century commercial architecture that has a mid-19th-century Greek Revival style [ionic] portico on a red brick façade.

